Resource Guide

PHI DELTA THETA
BECOME THE GREATEST VERSION OF YOURSELF

Note

Because Phi Delta Theta chapters around North America can range significantly in size and housing situations, this guide is a resource of ideas that you can modify to your chapter's specific needs. Use some or all suggestions to build a Family Club and create an effective bridge of communication between the chapter and its families.

Why Engage Family Members with Chapters?

As chapter advisory boards assist chapter officers to enhance chapter operations, families can help bridge the elements of 'home' to a chapter and its members' families. To help Phi Delta Theta chapters engage with the families of its members, this resource guide suggests ways interested family members of Phis can get involved through a Family Club and have an active role in various family events and regular communications between the chapter and parents/families.

Benefits of Family Engagement

A strong partnership between chapters and home is integral to early success for your members. The member's family experience was a primary influence of the young men that are considering membership in Phi Delta Theta. Because of the value and influence parents have with their children, their community, and the schools their sons attend, the Fraternity encourages chapters to foster the relationship of family throughout a member's undergraduate experience through organized family engagement.

Communication between members and their parents or guardians is an important part of a successful new member experience. Opening the communication between family members and chapter officers and alumni volunteers will help pave the way for helpful dialogue and understanding. As parents and families engage in their son's Phi Delta Theta Phikeia experience, learn the founding principles which guide the Phikeia education, and become part of the four-year member development path, everyone wins.

Parents of underclassmen are often a good resource of feedback, information, and advice to new member parents. During recruitment, parent club members can be excellent references for potential new members. In many cases, parents and families are often the best advocates for the chapter to the school administration.

"For our Parents Weekend each October, the Mom's Club hosts a Casino Night, with a silent auction and a live band, in addition to games. The mom's club helps with the silent auction. So much fun! It is a fundraiser for tutoring. The new members have mandatory study hall and the mom's club helps pay for tutoring. The other night is a football game and some parents go to the tailgate too. It's quite a weekend."

—Shea Blosser, Texas Epsilon Mom's Club president

"Kristen Simeroth is the head of our parents club. I think our parents club is great, and I especially appreciate our Sunday night parents dinners. It's the best meal of the week every week. Also, my mom loves being able to continue to be involved with what I'm doing at school."

Purpose of a Family Club

Family Clubs increase engagement opportunities by families and foster goodwill and cooperation between families and undergraduate members. Family Club leaders work alongside a chapter's Family Engagement Chairman to assist with regular communications and special events, such as:

- Mom's/Dad's/Family Weekends: Invite your families to campus and enjoy a weekend getting to know the families of your brothers and making memories
- Move-In: A great opportunity for parents to meet the chapter members and officers, see the chapter facility, and help their sons make this important move into communal living with his brothers.
- Chapter advisory board and/or house corporation participation: These groups support the chapter's operations and parents provide a valuable perspective and can serve on either board.
- Philanthropic opportunities: Many family clubs sponsor events that complement the chapter's fundraising efforts for ALS, or other worthy causes
- Advocacy with the university on behalf of the Fraternity: The Parent voice on campus is strong and respected, Phi Delta Theta benefits by parent advocacy.
- Initiation: One of the most memorable and impactful events for members is open to parents.
- Miscellaneous support to chapters: The extra support can help fill important gaps, through service and/or products (some clubs assist during recruitment, provide career counseling, purchase needed auxiliary items like a printer).

Recruitment

Recruitment is the first time most families learn about Phi Delta Theta. Tactics a Family Club can execute to help the chapter during recruitment include:

- Refer Potential New Members ✨
- Promote Phi Delta Theta and the chapter via website or social media platforms
- Provide 10 Questions to Ask if Your Son Wants to Join a Fraternity 🖱️ to families that lays out questions to ask their son when making his decision about Greek life
- Create/distribute a Parent Handbook to prospective members' families
 - » About Phi Delta Theta (Cardinal Principles, priorities, etc.)
 - » What makes Phi Delta Theta stand apart from others?
 - » Costs
 - » House information (if applicable)
 - » Academic standards
 - » Quotes from local alumni/advisers
 - » Chapter events (philanthropy, volunteering, brotherhood, homecoming, intramurals, socials, etc.)
 - » Officer contact information (undergraduate officers of president and recruitment chairman, alumni presidents for chapter advisory board and house corporation, if applicable)
 - » Frequently asked questions

New Member Period

After an individual receives an invitation to join (a bid), and he joins, the Phikeia (new member) education program is when parents can become more engaged with the chapter in a variety of ways:

- Big Brother program
- Weekly schedule
- Initiation (provide dates/details)
- Develop of periodic email/e-newsletter of activities and successes (choose best format)
- Interact with the chapter at orientation, during move-in, or at a family weekend

- Phi Delt fathers can participate in initiation to pin their Phi Delt son
- Phi Delt fathers can be initiated alongside their sons
- Take leadership position within the Family Club
- Join the chapter advisory board or house corporation
- Attend chapter meeting or meal to speak

Family Club Structure

Family Club Officers

President

Sends regular informational family emails, organize chapter-family functions with the chapter, host family club meetings, work with chapter president/family engagement chairman.

Treasurer

Collects member dues; manage bank account; make purchases as needed; facilitate fundraising.

Secretary

Collects new members' and their parents' contact information; work with president to send family emails; work with recruitment chairman to develop marketing materials for parents.

Family Club Members

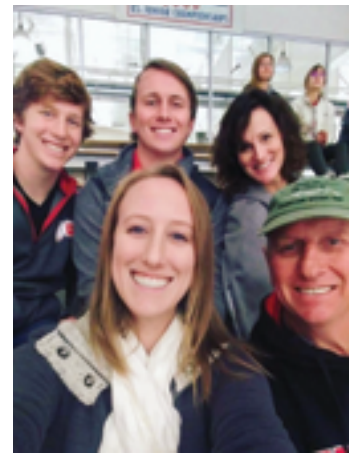

Parents and family interested in participating in events, communications, and support of the chapter. A membership distribution list with current members and accurate parent information is a key ingredient to successful family engagement. Be sure your son's chapter's Family Engagement Chairman has your contact information.

Family Club Dues

Family Club funds are at the discretion of the local club. Parent club funds should be separate from the chapter treasury. The club determines whether the funds are used to pay for family event programming or purchase chapter needs.

Set up a bank account and guidelines for managing funds, make sure all checks and balances are in place. There should be two individuals reviewing expenditures and implementing best practices for reimbursing yourself when you are the treasurer. An annual accounting overview should be provided to all participating members.

The IRS defines a 501(c)(7):Social Club. Federal income tax exempt as long as income only comes from members of the club: http://phide.lt/IRS_guidelines

Family Club Activities

- Move-In Day
- Philanthropic events
- Family/Mom's/Dad's Weekend(s)
- Homecoming events
- University/college parent weekend events
- Career mentorship
- Dinner guests

Frequently asked questions will vary by chapter, because answers will differ based on the type of chapter facility or housing situations.

What is the name of my son's local Phi Delt chapter?

Important Fraternity Policies

Alcohol-Free Housing ✨

Phi Delta Theta enforces a policy of no alcohol or illegal drugs within the chapter facility. This is a zero-tolerance policy. If your son brings drugs or alcohol into the chapter facility, he is violating the law, university rules, Phi Delta Theta rules, and his lease. Any member with alcohol or drugs in the chapter facility is subject to expulsion from the Fraternity.

Smoking is also prohibited in the chapter house. This includes e-cigarettes/vaping. Smoking or vaping in the chapter house is also a violation of your son's lease. There are designated areas outside the chapter facility for smoking.

Anti-Hazing ✨

This is a common question of parents when their son is joining any fraternity. Phi Delta Theta has a no-tolerance policy regarding hazing.

In most states hazing is against the law. Parents should familiarize themselves with the campus policies and applicable ordinances.

How is the Fraternity structured to help my son succeed?

General Headquarters

Phi Delta Theta is an international fraternity with nearly 200 chapters. General Headquarters (GHQ) is in Oxford, Ohio. GHQ provides support, training, and direction to local chapters of the Fraternity. Learn more at www.phideltatheta.org.

Chapter Advisory Board (CAB)

The Chapter Advisory Board (CAB) exists to provide continuity of guidance, uniform assistance, and consistent advice to the undergraduate leadership of the chapter as it exercises responsibility for operation in accordance with The Code of Phi Delta Theta, the chapter bylaws, the regulations of the host college/university, and appropriate state, commonwealth, or province and federal or dominion regulations and statutes.

The CAB advises the undergraduate members and officers, attends meetings of the Fraternity, and is involved in helping the chapter run smoothly in day-to-day operations. This board also works to keep our members safe by ensuring that our members are following university and Phi Delta Theta policies, most notably our alcohol-free housing policy and our strict anti-hazing policy.

CAB advisers provide (1) advice and counsel to the undergraduate members of the chapter while serving as a visible link to all alumni, (2) general support to the chairman to assist him in his role of chapter adviser, and (3) role-specific guidance and advice to the current and future leadership of the chapter.

Housing Corporation (HC)

The HC manages the physical structure of the chapter facility, its finances, and employs the live-in advisor/house mother and chef, if applicable.

Chapter Executive Team

Every year each chapter elects an officer team. This team, led by the chapter's president and vice-president, runs local operations day to day. The officer team is elected by their peers to make sure that the chapter operates smoothly.

Phikeia educator(s) is/are the most important officer(s) with the most direct contact to new members.

Phikeia Education Program

Phi Delta Theta calls its new members Phikeias, meaning members not yet initiated.

The new member program is administered in your son's first term in the Fraternity. The program is in place to aid your son in acclimating to the Fraternity and college life. This program teaches Phi Delta Theta history, leadership skills, good study habits, and other things that are important for your son's time as a Fraternity member.

Your son's acceptance into the Fraternity as an active member (after his Phikeia education period) is based on many factors. Having a good standing in academics, social life, philanthropy, brotherhood, and personal conduct will ensure a successful Phikeia period. Learning about the Fraternity and understanding and abiding by its policies is a prerequisite for membership and initiation.

Glossary of Phi Delta Theta Terms

Alcohol-Free Housing Policy of Phi Delta Theta

Effective July 1, 2000, all chapter facilities in Phi Delta Theta are alcohol-free. Phi Delta Theta was the first major fraternity to implement such a policy. The policy is included in the Fraternity's Risk Management policies and reads:

"All chapter facilities and properties in Phi Delta Theta Fraternity shall be alcohol-free at all times and under all circumstances. The implementation of these procedures is a continuation of the ongoing educational efforts of the General Fraternity."

Why Alcohol-Free Housing? ✎

Alumnus: A member of a fraternity who is no longer in college. A woman is an alumnae. Plural for both men and women is alumni.

Badge: Initiated members of Phi Delta Theta become eligible to wear a badge which signifies their having completed all requirements for membership and that they have signed The Bond of Phi Delta Theta.

Bid: A fraternity's official, written, or oral invitation to join their organization.

Big Brother: Initiated active member who serves as a mentor for a new or younger member.

Brother: Refers to a member who has been initiated into the chapter. The term 'Bro' is never used.

Bond Number: When Phi Delts are initiated, they sign The Bond of Phi Delta Theta the Fraternity's founding document written in December 1848 and never changed. It lays out the principles and values of the Fraternity and commitment to one another. The Bond Number represents the number of Phi Delts initiated at an individual chapter. So, if your son's Bond Number is 1003, this means that he was the 1,003 individuals to join Phi Delta Theta at that chapter.

Chapter: A chartered group of undergraduate members of a fraternity.

Chapter Advisory Board Chair: An alumnus or faculty/staff member who serves in an advisory role to provide guidance to the organization. The chair leads a group of alumni, parents, or faculty members who advise the undergraduate chapter in different aspects of chapter life.

Chapter Meeting: A formal meeting, usually weekly, of all a fraternity's brothers congregating to discuss, debate, and vote on the business and affairs of the fraternity.

Depledge: To quit or drop out of a fraternity during the pledging period.

Emerging Chapter: Status of a group of collegiate members preparing to qualify for official chartering by a fraternity.

Formal Rush: Organized by Interfraternity Council (IFC). The official process of recruitment and selecting new members.

Frat vs. Fraternity: 'Frat' is an unacceptable term for any fraternity in the Greek community. The proper term is 'fraternity.'

General Fraternity: Term referring to the Fraternity at large in Phi Delta Theta.

GHQ: Acronym for General Headquarters which is located in Oxford, Ohio, the birthplace of Phi Delta Theta. The GHQ staff is hired to create programming and offer services to all members of Phi Delta Theta.

Greek Week: A week of activities involving all fraternities and sororities to promote Greek unity and to raise funds for a charitable beneficiary.

Greek: An informal, or general name for a member of a fraternity or sorority.

Hazing: Mental or physical abuse or harassment of a member. Hazing is prohibited by university policy, state law, and the policies of national fraternities and sororities.

House Corporation (not applicable to all chapters): The legally incorporated corporation, directed by a board of directors composed of Phi Delta Theta alumni which owns and/or manages a chapter house.

Initiation: Fraternity ritual in which new members take part in ritualistic ceremonies, similar to Masonic rites, to formally initiate them into the Fraternity.

Interfraternity Council (IFC): Organization at every university that legislates and executes regulations for the fraternity system. The IFC coordinates formal recruitment and consists of an executive board of members elected from the individual fraternities.

Legacy: A student who has a brother, father, or grandfather who is a member of a particular fraternity. Legacies are often granted special consideration in the membership recruitment process, but they are never guaranteed membership.

Miami Triad: The Miami Triad consists of the three major international fraternities founded at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. These three fraternities: Beta Theta Pi (1839); Phi Delta Theta (1848) and Sigma Chi (1855) were the first fraternities to expand throughout the West and the South, making them the first truly national Greek organizations.

Panhellenic (NPC): The governing/coordinating council for the general sororities. All Panhellenic Association member sororities are affiliated with the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC).

Pledge/Phikeia: The name of a pledge in Phi Delta Theta. Pronounced "Phi: ki: ya"

Pledge Class: A group of men who received bids during the same recruitment season, and/or are in the same pledge period together.

Recruitment/Rush (sometimes called RUSH): The membership recruitment process. Potential New Members are sometimes referred to as RUSHEES.

Ritual: Official ceremony of a fraternity intended to explain the history, lore, laws, signs, symbols, purposes, and standards of the fraternity; defined as the heart of a fraternity and a pathway for life. All chapter meetings open with formal ritual ceremonies.

Sorority: A Greek letter organization for women.

Three Cardinal Principles of Phi Delta Theta: Phi Delta Theta was founded on three Cardinal (or founding) Principles: Friendship, Sound Learning, and Rectitude.

Phi Delta Theta Parents Club Newsletter

Alpha Nebraska
August 2019

A Message From Our Phi Delta Theta President...

Parents, welcome back to Lincoln! My name is Jack Butler, and I'm excited to take over as house president. I'm a Nebraska guy—raised in Elkhorn and born a Husker. Now going into my junior year, I can say that Phi Delt has been among the most valuable and unforgettable experiences of my life. I've been lucky to look up to a number of mature leaders in the house during my first two years, and I see it as my role to try and pass that on to the rest of the house.

The spring semester flew by. Nearly weekly pinnings broke up our packed formal list, which was capped by a successful finale in the Ozarks where we sent off our senior class. On campus, we led all fraternities in Greek Week for the third year in a row. March's Phi Delt Phillies added to our year's strong philanthropy performance. Sophomore Cameron Stussie was awarded an Iron Phi, raising $1,000 for Phi Delt's Live Like Lou foundation. This fall, I'm excited about working with our young exec team, whose recruitment chairs have put together another strong class. The team and I will welcome you on move in day, and we'll be happy to answer questions or concerns as we begin the next year.

PDT House Living Information..

- We recommend something like the Wonder Hanger and flat hangers for your closet.
- Bring a water bottle! We have 2 water stations!

Welcome New Phikeias!

As we get closer to a new semester beginning in August, we are excited to announce that we had another successful summer of recruitment. With this incoming Fall 2019 Phikeia class, we welcome 46 new members from a multitude of backgrounds. With 7 different states represented, from over 26 different high schools, and a vast array of declared majors, we feel that we have one of the most unique new member classes on campus. At Phi Delta Theta, we have always prided ourselves on selecting the finest young men who will not only benefit the house, but will also serve to benefit from it.

The tremendous success this summer would not have been possible without the awesome support from our members and their families. A special thanks goes out to the Zerzan, Rodgers, and Schovanec families for being so gracious by hosting events. Along with our Rush Committee and everyone who consistently came out to events, you made our job much easier.

Now begins the next step; welcoming the next class of future Phi's in with open arms and doing everything we can to help them succeed. We have no doubt that these young men will be met with the best academic and social support on campus while making the lifetime bonds that Phi Delta Theta provides. Although we wish summer rush could last forever, we are excited to see what our new class of men will accomplish!

A Word From Our Phi Delta Theta Housing Corporation Board, Chad Engle!

My name is Chad Engle, I was a member of Phi Delta Theta, Nebraska Alpha chapter, and graduated from UNL in 1993. I have been a member of the Phi Delta Theta Housing Corporation Board since the fall of 2012. For those that are unfamiliar with fraternities and sororities, essentially the Housing Corporation owns and manages the fraternity property at 1545 "R" Street and performs the same functions a landlord would.

My duties are that of Property Manager. I am responsible for day-to-day repairs and maintenance, not personally, but through a close relationship with HandyMark. HandyMark is a local contracting company owned by Mark Neiswanger. Your sons will see Mark and his employees at the house frequently performing scheduled maintenance such as changing filters, checking smoke/co alarms and inspecting fire extinguishers.

Recently Mark installed water bottle fill stations and remodeled the movie room, with the help of the Parent's Club.

If your son experiences maintenance related issues, the process for reporting starts with the House Manager. The House Manager is a member of the chapter that is tasked with repairing simple things. If the House Manager is unable to fix the issue, the House Manager can call or text me, or he can report it directly to HandyMark.

An issue that I run into regularly is untimely reporting of maintenance issues. If you hear your sons complaining about a maintenance issue, please remind them to report it to the House Manager or myself. I can't fix it until I'm aware of it.

I am excited with some changes we are making for the upcoming semester. We are working with ALLO this summer to install high-speed internet and cable. This should be a great benefit for everyone living in. There has also been talk of a major remodel in the future. We're in the early feasibility stage and will share information as it becomes available.

Enjoy the rest of the summer! We will have the house ready for your sons when they return in August.

Welcome From House Mom Geri Packard!

I want to welcome all the new parents. We want you to know that we are excited that your sons have pledged Phi Delta Theta, yes, the best house on campus! I look forward to when we meet on the 22nd and I will give you a brief history of myself and what my role then.

This summer I have been very fortunate to see a renovation in my house apartment. I have a new kitchenette and a remodeled bathroom. My apartment door will be open during Parent's Day if you wish to take a look. I can't thank the Housing Corp Board enough for this update to my living quarters!

It is a challenge with 68 PDT live-ins and 50+ actives that we love to have stop by. If you ever have a concern please let someone know.

We do have a cleaning service 5 days a week for 3 hours each day. They are contracted to clean the bathrooms 3 times a week and common areas. They do not clean in the sleeping or study rooms. I have asked the guys to please NOT shower or be in the bathrooms when the cleaning people are there. The other 2 days they mop floors, vacuum carpets, do some light dusting. They are responsible for the trashcans in the bathrooms and common areas. We ask that the guys do not put their trash in those containers but to take out their own trash from their study and sleeping rooms.

Last but not to be overlooked, this year we are converting from an individual chef to a food service. This will be a new experience and I am sure we will have some bugs to work out. I will be able to address any concerns after our first couple of weeks and I get to know the expectations and responsibilities of all parties.

Again, if you have any concerns please contact me at gpackard1@gmail.com or 402-560-6430 and send a text if I don't pick up. The Housing Corp Board and myself want to see any problems addressed when they come up and not months down the road. Looking forward to another exciting, challenging, productive year at PDT!

PDT Parents Club Information From Kristin Simeroth...

Welcome Back Phi Delt Parents and welcome to our new parents! Move in is quickly approaching and it is time for your back to school newsletter.

My name is Kristin Simeroth and I will be your 2019-2020 Phi Delta Theta Parents Club Leader. I have been co-leading the club for the last two years with Debbie Laughlin. With Sam entering his senior year, Debbie will be rolling off Parents Club so I will do my best to man the ship alone, at least for now.

Some may ask, what is Parents Club and why should I join? Parents Club's focus is to support the families and men of Phi Delt via an extra liason to the Housing Corp, chapter advisor & house mom Geri.

We field a lot of questions and help drive answers, foster ideas, gain solutions, organize volunteers for Sunday dinners, coordinate Parents Weekend, make the house festive during the holidays, issue dead week snack bags and, even purchase Sunday dinners when we have a gap in coverage.

Parents Club was able to fund the remodel of the movie room in 2018 and in recent years replaced the blinds in the kitchen and remodeled the sitting room on the first floor. We facilitated 19 Sunday dinners and hosted two Chipotle Burrito nights!

We are funded through your $75 membership and cannot do this without you! Dues can be sent to paypal- phideltathetalincoln@gmail.com, mail a check made payable to PDT Parents Club to: Kristin Simeroth, 3908 W. 149th Street, Leawood, KS 66224 or drop off at our move in day BBQ!

Please plan in joining us for the move in BBQ- Thursday August 22nd-Noon at the front of Phi Delt followed by a Phi Delt Parents Club meeting at 3pm in the Union. We will have members from Housing Corp, Chapter Advisory, House Mom and Parents Club. We hope to see both new and current families.

Please feel free to contact me via email or call/text 913-269-0911 if you have any questions, suggestions or need assistance.

Calling all volunteers! We have quite a few openings:

Co-Chair Leader- Oversight of the club, assist with event planning, take lead 2020.

Sunday Dinner Coordinator- set up the calendar of meals, communicate with volunteers

Sample Parents Communication Newsletter from Washington Alpha Background Information

At Phi Delta Theta WA Alpha, our parent's club is an opportunity to not only strengthen the foundation of our organization but improve the community our brotherhood promotes. We send out parent newsletters through our Google Group. It is a platform which allows us to keep updated parent rosters from year to year and send emails, newsletters, reminders, which are all archived within the group itself. A newsletter is sent out once a quarter to give parents a quarterly recap of our achievements and new business within the house. This letter supports the fraternity brand by giving our parents an inside scoop into all the great things the fraternity has allowed us to accomplish and what the fraternity has provided for us.

Our parents club has two dimensions: a small group of passionate parents that meet monthly to help plan and coordinate events with the parent's club chair, and the broader community of parents that come to events put on for them, stay updated through our newsletters, and who support our Iron Phi and our other philanthropic goals on campus. The smaller group of parents are crucial in providing the fraternity with feedback on events, time, and support in planning events, and give advice on creative ways to encourage parents to donate to our philanthropy.

We always start the academic year with an introductory parents' banquet. This event is for all new parents to see the house, get to meet other parents, and get to learn about our values, Iron Phi, and what this house promises their sons. This past fall, we had a dad's cookout for an away UW football game. We set up a projector in our main common area as well with seating and barbecued an assortment of meats and had chips to eat while watching. We also had a mom's tailgate, where we gathered at our chapter house and served burgers and other snacks while playing cornhole, spike ball, and other games with our moms before heading down to the UW football game.

Finally, we had a Christmas decorating event with our parents this winter, served hot chocolate, and played Christmas music while getting in the holiday spirit by hanging lights and putting up our twenty-foot Christmas tree. It was unfortunate that our year was cut short as we had planned an auction for early spring to raise money for Iron Phi but fortunately the items and motivation will be carried onto next year.

THE WASHINGTON ALPHA QUARTERLY

Official Newsletter of the Washington Alpha Chapter of Phi Delta Theta at the University of Washington

With winter quarter behind us, it is important to take time to reflect on all that Phi Delta Theta Washington Alpha has accomplished throughout the quarter. In this edition, we focus on the impact we have made in the community and beyond. As we enter spring quarter, we recognize that life as we know it is changing in response to COVID-19. As a result, our sights are set on embracing the unique challenges posed by COVID-19 and continual growth and development along the way.

- Will Fleming, Parents Club Chair

CHAPTER UPDATE

COVID-19

Life in the United States is changing quickly and drastically in response to COVID-19. Many people are understandably feeling fear and frustration. With concern for the well-being of all our members, their families, and our greater community, we have decided to limit the number of people that live in the chapter house during spring quarter to individuals that absolutely need to live in the house. Phi Delta Theta WA Alpha is committed to making sure we place the health and safety of our members above individual interests. We must make sacrifices now to ensure that we can get back to normal life as soon as possible. While we cannot be sure what is to come, we can tell you that the safety and health of our members is our number one priority.

A Message from the President

Phi Delta Theta had great fall and winter quarters. For fall quarter, we finished with an average GPA of 3.49. This is our second highest average quarterly GPA ever since IFC started releasing grade reports. I expect an even better winter quarter. Furthermore, we have signed nine Phikeia; we are well on track to our goal of signing a 30-man PC20. Our chapter has thrived in philanthropy as well. We raised over $3,000 for AGD's Mr. Greek philanthropy, and we are on the way to repeating as an Iron Phi chapter. This year, we have nine members committing to be an Iron Phi; some of them have already completed their goal of raising $1,000. COVID-19 has certainly impacted chapter operations for spring quarter, but our academic, recruitment, and brotherhood standards have not changed. We expect the best of our members, and I am confident we can adapt in these uncertain times. I am proud of what we have done so far this year, and I am excited for spring quarter.

Sincerely,

Frank Cui

WINTER QUARTER HIGHLIGHTS

External Philanthropy

Throughout winter quarter, our chapter was involved in external philanthropy. We participated in Delta Gamma's ice cream and brownie feed, Delta Delta Delta's pancake feed, Zeta Tau Alpha's pizza and root beer feed, Alpha Omicron Pi's Cinnabon feed, and Kappa Delta's Shamrock Shootout. However, our biggest external philanthropy accomplishment was our contributions made towards Alpha Gamma Delta's Mr. Greek (page 6).

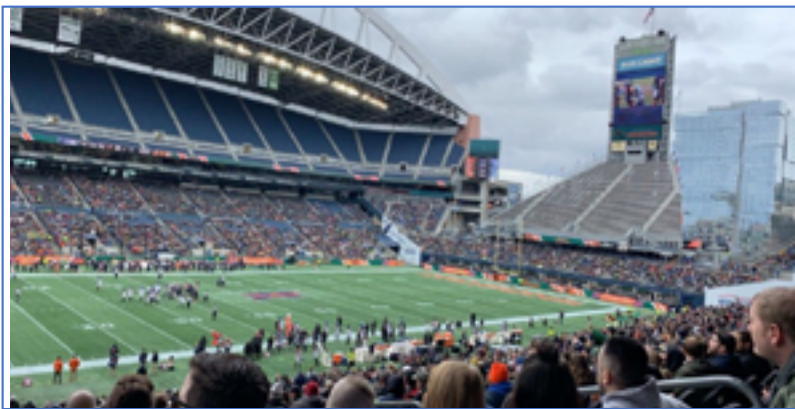

Internal Philanthropy

This quarter our chapter made the decision to strive toward becoming an Iron Phi chapter, which requires that we fundraise at least $10,000. This supports Phi Delta Theta's Live Like Lou foundation that raises money towards ALS research, education, screening, and treatment. Moreover, nine of our Brothers committed to the Iron Phi challenge, which requires that an individual completes an athletic feat and fundraises at least $1000. We are proud of our Brothers that have taken the initiative to pursue their personal goals as well as the goals of the house overall. This quarter we also hosted a nacho feed where we raised $700 towards Alpha Gamma Delta's Mr. Greek. Moving forward, we plan to host a week-long philanthropy in which teams from different sororities and fraternities participate in a competition. This philanthropy has been successful in the past and its date is to be determined.

Social

As busy as we were during winter quarter with academics, philanthropy, and community service, we still made the most out of the college experience by maintaining a busy and exciting social calendar. Events included Whistler Weekend, our annual Vancouver Formal, a “Wild-West” GAD, and brotherhood events like laser tag and an XFL gameday.

Meet our newest initiates

At the beginning of winter quarter, WA Alpha initiated 20 Phikeias into our brotherhood. A new era of Phi Delts are ready to make an impact at the University of Washington, and we are excited to see them become the greatest version of themselves! We would like to congratulate their Phikeia Educator, Caleb Ellington, for being an excellent role model and teacher, and for the tremendous effort he put into a successful Phikeia Educational Program.

Community Service

Every quarter we require our members to attend and participate in at least two community service events. We require this because we want our members to have a lasting and strong impact on our community. Some of the events our members have volunteered at this quarter include Goalball (a team sport designed specifically for athletes with a vision impairment), various blood drives, and ROOTS Young Adult Shelter.

Undergraduate Spotlight

My name is Ryan Singh, I was Phi Delta Theta's Mr. Greek. I am a freshman in PC19, and I am studying Informatics. Growing up, I was involved in the music and theater community. I participated in plays throughout middle school and I sung in various choirs throughout high school. I was also involved in student government in high school which developed my public speaking skills. Fortunately, all these activities contributed to my role as our Mr. Greek contestant.

I was extremely honored to be selected as our contestant and my journey with Mr. Greek began in November this past fall. AGD's Mr. Greek Philanthropy raised money to support Treehouse for Kids, Meals on Wheels, and Feeding America. Each of the Mr. Greek contestants were given points based on the hours of community service they completed, money they raised, and how they performed during Mr. Greek Week and the pageant. I would meet with my coaches every Wednesday until the pageant to discuss my fundraising strategy and learn the choreography to the group dance number at the beginning of the pageant. Practice served as a fun break during the week to relax and do something new. Practice was also a lot of fun because I got to meet contestants from other fraternities. It was really refreshing to meet new people during this process and learn about their experiences at the university.

Mr. Greek week consisted of a 2k videogame basketball tournament, a 5 on 5 basketball tournament, a skit night, and the Mr. Greek Pageant. Unfortunately, the basketball tournament was rained out, but the rest of the week's events were a great way to bring our house together and show support for a worthy cause. The culmination of our efforts was the Mr. Greek Pageant, where I performed a cover of Daniel Caesar's and H.E.R.'s "Best Part". I was accompanied by fellow Phis Gabriel Nogoy and Jonathan Seto, and we were fortunate enough to win the honor of "Most Talented" that night.

I am grateful to have had the opportunity to be our Mr. Greek contestant. I was able to represent Phi Delta Theta and reach out to the broader community, and I will never forget the connections I made through this process. This experience has shown me the value of community-building and service, and I hope I can pursue similar experiences in the future.

Meet the Recruitment Team

Recruitment is essential in maintaining a strong fraternity. As we head into this spring and summer, we are looking for 30 new young men to become Phikeia and eventually carry on the legacy of Phi Delta Theta. If you know any young men that you feel have what it takes to become Phi Delts, please do not hesitate to contact our recruitment team.

Meet the 2020 Executive Board

Ending this quarter's newsletter, we would like to introduce our Executive Board for 2020. The new Executive Team is working hard to address areas in the house that need improvement. Some of the areas they have identified include improving alumni outreach, advancing academic programming, improving the internal structure of the chapter house, and innovating our house's philanthropy.

Name	Position
Frank Cui	President
Henry Arnold	Vice President
Liam Sullivan	Secretary
Evan Deiparine	Treasurer
Clay Boyd	Recruitment
Jordano Mark	Scholarship
Craig Robertson	Warden
Will Fleming	Social
Aaron Lowe	Social
Noah Ponto	House Manager
Ryan Liang	Phikeia Educator

Although spring quarter poses many unique challenges because most members are not living in the chapter house due to COVID-19, the Executive Team is prepared to use alternative means to lead and communicate with the chapter. Our members look forward to seeing each other in person during the summer and fall, but for now we look to continue to stay at home and practice social distancing until the COVID-19 outbreak is controlled.

Sample from Missouri Beta, part of 2020 awards nomination Background Information

As a past parent's association chair, I can confidently say that Phi Delta Theta Missouri Beta's Parent Communication activities are superb and arguably the best organized event put on by a fraternity. The most popular and without a doubt best event that our fraternity is our Parent's Weekend Tailgate and Dinner. In the fall of every school year, Westminster College has one Saturday set aside for parents of students to come and visit the college. Beyond the home football game and a barbeque, the school does not do much with the event. We at Missouri Beta use this to show the parents and relatives of members the excellent fraternal experience of every brother and Phikeia. At least a month prior to the actual weekend, our Parent's Association

Chairs send out emails asking for RSVPs from parents of actives and Phikeias, which is then followed up two weeks later by mailed invitations as well. The day begins around ten a.m. with a tailgate in a parking lot adjacent to the football field. Parents are invited to arrive at any time from then until kickoff. At the tailgate, we typically have hot dogs, burgers, and other sorts of typical picnic or barbecue food. Once people are finished eating, they can use the cornhole and other yard games set up nearby, or simply talk with their sons, other parents, or members of the CAB that are also in attendance. Following the tailgate, families are encouraged to attend the football game, but if any older family members have come, we have a handful of members at the house who are standing by to do tours for any guest that arrives. Once the game has ended, our house mom sets out an enormous dinner for everyone, normally including brisket, lobster, various pastas and salads, a large fruit selection, and many wonderful desserts. Before the meal, all the brothers meet in the foyer, where we sing the opening ceremony for our guests. After everyone has gone through the line and had plenty of time to eat, our chapter advisor gives a speech to the guests outlining whatever awards the house has received in the past year, our Phikeia scholarship program, and general chapter updates. Finally, we end the day with a large group photo taken on our back deck by our house mom. From that point on, parents leave whenever they are ready. Examples are provided on the following page.

Welcome Letter from a House Corporation to Parents of Phikeias To the Parents of [Insert Phikeia's Name],

On behalf of the Missouri Beta Chapter of Phi Delta Theta, I'm pleased to congratulate your son on joining our Fraternity! Our chapter is excited to welcome along brother [Phikeia's name] and assist in guiding him to becoming the greatest version of himself.

Unlike most other fraternities, our chapter is very much focused on personal growth and academic excellence rather than parties and other inappropriate behavior as depicted by the media. We accomplish this by creating a safe environment within our house—ensuring that our house remains substance-free and abstains from any sort of hazing practices. Your son's safety is at our utmost importance and we understand the tragic history of dangerous fraternal practices and our chapter works diligently to defy those negative Greek stereotypes. During your son's Phikeia education, he will learn about our three Cardinal Principles that Phi Delta Theta stands for: Friendship, Sound Learning, and Rectitude, while in an enriching and educational setting.

I'm sure you still have a ton of questions and I'm happy to provide whatever resources I can. For general information regarding our international fraternity, please visit PhiDeltaTheta.org.

For specifically Missouri Beta news, updates, and events, visit our website at PhiDeltaThetaMissouriBeta.com. Please also follow us on Facebook (Phi Delta Theta – Missouri Beta) and Instagram (@PhiDeltWestMo). If you have any other questions, please feel free to reach out to myself personally and I'd be happy to help in any way that I can! Congratulations again!
