SMALL, FREQUENT ACTIVITIES

By utilizing this document, you will be able to identify small, frequent activities that your chapter can utilize for building relationships with potential new members.

Rule #1
Cost Little To No Money

Rule #2
Easy To Set Up & Tear Down

Rule #3
You Already Enjoy Doing It

---

Your Small, Frequent Activities

What do you or your chapter already do on a daily, weekly, or monthly basis that follow the 3 rules of small, frequent activities?

__________________________________________  ___________________________________________

__________________________________________  ___________________________________________

__________________________________________  ___________________________________________

__________________________________________  ___________________________________________

__________________________________________  ___________________________________________

__________________________________________  ___________________________________________